Comments: Hi Don...I visited your site for the first time a couple of days ago, as a "courtesy call" because you had been kind enough to sign my guest book, and I wanted to thank you for the kind words. I became so engrossed in your wonderful writings and stayed so long that I didn't have time to sign your guest book. Soooo, I came back by tonight.....guess what? I have spent a very long, enjoyable time here again tonight, getting to know Granpa Don and Family. Thank you, Don, for the blessings I've received through your thoughts and perceptions. Thank you for allowing God to use you to portray His love for us. And thank you for visiting WrensWorld.com and leaving your URL so that I can come here again and again to nourish my Spirit. Wishing you and your family the very best of holidays. God Bless.
Your sister in Christ... Wren (a. k. a. Rinda)

And I'm coming back when I have more time to read. My time is very limited, but this is very appealing to me, and I'd like to do similar things to my site one day...right now we are expecting the 2nd grandchild any day! Happy Holidays to you and yours!

Comments: Hi Grandpa Don:-).

You should be very proud to have made such a wonderful site for yourself and everyone else to see and enjoy.

Your design, text and graphics are very beautifully coordinated; a real picture.

I really enjoyed myself visiting your delightful pages.

You are four years my senior and lived in a different country, however we have a very similar childhood story and the dressed code were very similar.

Congratulations you have a very entertaining and beautiful site :-)

Thank you so much for sharing your wonderful family with us, hopefully you'll visit my family. I have a family site. I have made a thanksgiving mini-site that I think you'll like. I will leave you a link under the text, if you so choose you can go directly there.

Of course it would be grand if you could also visit my web site.

If you find the time to visit my site, would you please jot down in my guest book what you think of my pages. Thank you for the opportunity of visiting your excellent site.

Take Care, Elsa and Adrian :-)

Comments: My birthday (37th) will be on April 14. I feel very lonely about it, but know there are many blessings in my life. My oldest son will be 17 on April 12- we usually, and probably will, celebrate together. I wish I could just take off and go to Disneyland or something neat like that.
As it stands, I will be on my days off on the 14th (I get Fri-Sat), but where can I go or what can I do in a small town area like I live in and share the day with my boys, too? I would really like to get a nice marriageable mormon gentleman for my birthday. However, it is late at night as I write this and the Lord's will need be done and not mine and on his timetable. (I even sent myself an E-card that will arrive on my birthday.)

Comments: You have created such a wonderful website, Don. I also want to send my best to Annie. My mother had heart bypass surgery several years ago and my sister and I began celebrating that event a year later as her "Rebirthday". How nice to find that same term on your website! It's one of those "sorta' had to be there" to really, really understand the full meaning of it. The "friend" who referred me was actually your message in the current RAOK newsletter. Aloha!
